Overview

Indiana University ranks 255 out of 257 schools in the 2026 College Free Speech Rankings with a score of 44, an F speech climate grade. The university was penalized for canceling journalist Chris Geidner’s keynote address at an LGBTQ+ health-care conference in response to President Trump’s executive order restricting the use of federal funds on diversity, equity, and inclusion initiatives.

Students signal deep concerns following an incident in which IU posted a sniper on a rooftop during a protest: IU lands in the bottom 25 for “Openness” to controversial ideas, frequency of “Self-Censorship,” and perceived “Administrative Support” for free expression, and it ranks in the bottom 50 for “Comfort Expressing Ideas.”

IU could improve by revising its written speech policies to earn a “green light” Spotlight rating, adopting a free speech statement based on the Chicago Statement, and adopting an official commitment to institutional neutrality.
