Overview

Syracuse University ranks 76 out of 257 schools in the 2026 College Free Speech Rankings with a score of 61, a D- speech climate grade. The university's score rose 5 points, and its rank jumped 170 places, a shift that coincided with shrinking speech controversy penalties, a major improvement in student perception, and credit for having adopted both the Chicago Statement and institutional neutrality. Syracuse retains a "yellow light" Spotlight rating.

Student perceptions place Syracuse in the top 50 for both "Comfort Expressing Ideas" and "Openness," suggesting many feel free to share and hear viewpoints in class compared to other schools.

Syracuse could build on recent gains by revising its written policies to earn a "green light" Spotlight rating and by sponsoring events that expose students to a wider range of political perspectives.
